JEB DUNNUCK

92 pts.

“Lots of dark currant and plum fruits as well as tobacco, damp earth, and violet notes define the bouquet... and it’s medium to full-bodied on the palate, with ripe tannins and terrific overall balance. ...another impeccably made wine from Jean-François Pellet that can be drunk today or cellared for 10-15 years or more”

WINE ADVOCATE

“Firm, dense and concentrated dark fruit essences of plum reduction, cherry compote and crème de cassis with hints of lavender liqueur and bitter dark chocolate... Firm tannins grow across the mid-palate before turning to a long, winding and evolving finish with persistent flavors of spiced plums and blackberry reduction. ”

“...this cabernet doubles down on Walla Walla’s intensity, its fruit grounded by coffee and cocoa scents. The plum and cassis flavors are held in a firm, tannic grip with fruit skin and oak both contributing.”
